

Voice Of The Beehive, Trust Me

(t. bryn)

girls lie to boys and boys lie to girls he says, &quot;i've been at the office, papers up to here&quot; but he smells like beer she says, &quot;its okay&quot; he thinks she doesn't know - women always know chorus

but i'm gonna be the one to break all those rules i think those people are fools scandal's nothing new what good is the truth if we never use it?

you've just got to trust me sometimes &quot;trust me&quot; he says in the dark she's saved it all this time but to him it's worth a dime she found out the hard way you get the kisses then the tears
to think she'd saved is all these years you've just got to trust me sometime repeat chorus

i may leave you but i will never lie she said, &quot;i will love you forever, baby, you are my home&quot; but five years later he's alone with some kids and a car - his only warmth from the heater
he wondered how he believed her

fade out:

i didn't tell you because i didn't want to hurt you
