

Voivod, Forlorn

now i've come back crusing the day my maker took my strength away
planet control
to save my world
mission complete
though i am weak
lost in this world
i am forlorn
loss of this world
i am forlorn
i fight alone
me with my selves
battling ghosts
part of this hell
give me some rest
i feel so old
my blood is drained
turning me cold
lost in this world
feeling forlorn
loss of this world
i am forlorn
lost in this world
feeling forlorn
loss of this world
i am alone
shadows here
in this place
planet fear
death is near
anark my given name
close my eyes
fade away...
