

Voivod, Wrong-Way Street

I lost my key... where is the door?
Am I living here anymore?
My souvenirs thrown on the floor
It's never been this bad before
I went outside to get a life
But everything was closed up tight
Why should I care? Why should I run?
Now that I'm home... my guitar's gone!

I'm taking it day by day
Life goes on... oh, yeah, life goes on...

Awake at night I look outside
A burning car in the dawning light
A sorry sight... another fight
A scenery in black and white
What can I do? What can I say?
It's a hard time in a hard place

I'm taking it day by day
Life goes on... oh, yeah, life goes on...

Don't ask me if I feel alright
I'm glad that I am here tonight
Don't ask me if it's wrong or right
Remember everything is fine
Remember... forever

It's getting worse, most everyday
But has it always been this way?
This price I have to pay today
My goddamn house is in flames
A traffic jam... commercial breaks
And politicians' big disgrace
This planet earth... it's where I live
It's where I'll die, I do believe

I'm taking it day by day
Life goes on... oh, yeah, life goes on...
