

Volbeat, Cheapside Sloggers (ft. Gary Holt)

the blood is painting the streets again whit hammers and razor blades thieves and riots are our daily bread the Peaky Blinders prevail

dear brothers let's celebrate what is ours by day and by night stylishly and fearlessly we control what is wrong and right so be kind
if you come for us we'll cut you a smile maybe I be at the heaven's gate a half hour before before the Devil knows I am dead I am always dressed up for good
