

Volbeat, Fallen

Feel the sadness burning in my heart
You left too early father
So many things I should have said
But in your mind you knew it well
Holding on to what I gotta love
But things still seem so dark and cold
The fire burning down my happiness
But I will rise
So proud and strong you truly were
I took it with me as I'm told
A gift from father to his only son
Watching over me with eagle eyes
You gave me freedom too, and love
What dreams I bought are truly

See me fallen, you're down and lonely
Are the angels on the way I'm in the dirt
Hear me screaming, see me bleeding
Cause the day is no more the same
Without you

Promise me, my son, you always will Cherish what you love, believe in it
Never lose your values, stand up for the day
Dear father I thank you for this
I'm ready yes for the new task
Together we can make it through the day
See me fallen, you're down and lonely
Are the angels on the way I'm in the dirt
Hear me screaming, see me bleeding
Cause the day is no more the same
Without you

See me fallen, you're down and lonely
Are the angels on the way I'm in the dirt
Hear me screaming, see me bleeding
Cause the day is no more the same
Without you /x2
