

Volkana, 05 - Wake Up

Power to keep you under control
Money to keep them playing their role
Experts in plans that never work out
You're not the one they're worried about

Wake up, this ain't a dream
Your life is in their hands
They steal before your eyes
Wake up, begin to rise

Bastards in suits who play with your mind
Should be behind bars with their kind
It's time for you to turn things around
Wise up, before they start the next round
