

Voltaire, About a Girl

You learn a lot about a girl
The way that you meet her
Was she with a guy when you met her?
How did she treat him?
Was she lying to her man
To be out holding your hand?
Yeah, you learn a lot about a girl
Do you really believe that with you it will be different?
Man, listen to me I did that too
Now it's here that I'm missing
I'm a guy that she lied to Soon enough that guy will be you
Yeah, you learn a lot about a girl
Was it a nice, clean, even split before you and she got into it?
Yeah, you learn a lot about a girl
Now here's a fact that is true
All men are dumb, all women are crazy
Hey, open your eyes
If you don't see this you're just being lazy
She's no saint as you can see
'Cause she's out with you
While she's living with me
Yeah, you learn a lot
Don't think you will not
Yeah, you learn a lot about a girl
