

Von Herten Brothers, Ocean Of Mercy

ocean of mercy
where are you hiding?
show yourself to me
i know you're just playing reveal your compassion come to me come, come, come and end this illusion run to me run, run, run the sound of your laughter and flute divine fills the air a crown with a feather so beautiful adorns your hair the moon will rise to light up the night that soon will bind us as one, so come, at once, oh run!

it's been too many years my search has ended up in tears oh lord!

what's taking you so long?
i'm helpless with you gone
oh lord!
my sweet lord!

in the woods of your love in the mist of your dawn i'll be waiting, i'll be waiting

where are you hiding?
