

Vonda Shepard, Someone to use to

Just a shoulder to cry on
That's all I've been to you
Just someone to rely on
When your world is empty and blue
I'm just someone you call dear
Anytime you choose
I'm just someone to run to
I'm just someone to use
I'm just someone you can talk to
And that's all I'll ever be
Just a clown you can laugh with
Someone you treat as you need
I'm just a fool you can love on
Anytime you choose
I'm just someone you run to
I'm just someone to use
I'm just someone you run to
I'm just someone to use
Don't you know when you need me
My little heart just can't refuse
I'm just someone who loves you, baby
I can't win and I can't lose
I'm just someone you run to
I'm just someone to use.
