

Vonda Shepard, Someone You Use

Just a shoulder to cry on
That's all I've been to you
Just someone to rely on
When your world is empty and blue

I'm just someone you can call dear
Whenever you choose
I'm just someone you run to
I'm just someone you use

I'm just someone you can talk to
And that's all I'll ever be
Just a clown you can laugh with Someone to treat you as you need

I'm just a fool you can love on
Any time you choose
I'm just someone you run to
I'm just someone you use

I'm just someone you run to
I'm just someone you use
Don't you know when you need me
My little heart just can't refuse

I'm just someone who loves you, baby
I can't win and I can't lose
I'm just someone you run to
I'm just someone you use
