

Vonda Shepard, This Is Crazy Now

Blown like the wind, restless again
My only bestfriend has gone away
Washed like the tide but I'm still alive
I'm gonna drive all night long

This is crazy now
I'll fill the space somehow
If there were some way to get through
This is crazy now
I'll fill the space somehow
I can't walk away from you

Shaken like a leaf, sharpened like a reef
All of my senses need relief
Looking out to see, I still believe
That you and I were meant to be

This is crazy now
I'll fill the space somehow
If there were some way to get through
This is crazy now (like a finger paint)
I'll fill the space somehow (smearing in the rain)
I can't walk away from you (wash it all away)

This is crazy now (like a finger paint)
I'll fill the space somehow (smearing in the rain)
If there were some way to get through (wash it all away)
This is crazy now (shaken like a leaf)
I'll fill the space somehow (sharpened like a reef)
