

Vonda Shepard, Venus Is Breaking

Words and Music by Vonda Shepard

I kissed this man with one of my lips
I bumped this man with one of my hips

Now I'm sad and I'm free again, he won't be coming back
Save my victory get this monkey off my back

It's snowing outside, it's a desert in here
It blows my mind how you disappeared

And I feel so strange, I need to love somebody whole
The sound of his name rocked me like a jungle in my soul

I'm just a girl who wants to have fun
You shined on my world like a burning sun

Life is a scream I cling to this dream
Venus is breaking in me

I kick the sand, get drunk again
I slap my hand, I'm in love with this man

And I feel so lame for getting sucked in this deep
You're a quagmire baby and you make me feel so cheap

You shined n my world like a burning sun
Well I could have sworn that you were the one

Life is a scream, I cling to this dream
Venus is breaking in me (she's breaking inside me)
Life is a scream, I cling to this dream
My love was the real thing

I paid this price one time before
My friends say he ain't worth it, but I'd pay even more

Venus is breaking inside of me
She dreams of a life that'll never be

Repeat chorus
