

Voxtro, Firecracker

I had a lust,
I had a firecracker,
I had a love for the sound of this world

I'm still in love,
It's just a stab at laughter,
It's just a mark of the people we are

But don't be daft, no,
It's just a monkey business,
They're running signs no remainders of since

We deal in abstract,
No pain and no deliverance,
This a punch i'm not punching up against

Oh, it's all just mirrors life and smoke,
We are livin' in some tiny joke,
And I'm hear to show my lust,
And be shown the....

To kick the walls,
Smash the lights,
Rip the shades,
Burn it all,
Firecracker, firecracker,
I will not complain at all

I will never be tricked by you,
no, no, no,
I will never be tricked by you

I never thought,
That I would be this ugly,
I never thought I'd be biting that hand

That feeds the mouth,
That spits the seeds of money,
I'm just a shell, I'm a sensitive man

We make a choice to,
Unfold the tiny secret,
Put in lights for the grunt of this place

Is it the same thing,
To write it as to think it?
I'm choppin' noses just to ruin my face

Break down all the record company,
Did you turn your back on me,
Or did i turn myself against myself?

I will kick the walls,
Smash the lights,
Rip the shades,
Burn it all,
Firecracker, firecracker,
I will not complain at all

I will never be tricked by you,
No, no, no,
I will never be tricked by you

I'm still in love,

I set the love in motion,
I'm still in love with the future we planned

Tell me you feel,
The same complete emotion,
I'm still in love with your baby I am

Did you turn your back on me,
Or did I turn myself against myself?

Oh, kick the wall,
Smash the lights,
Rip the shades,
Burn it all,
Firecracker, firecracker,
I will not complain at all

I will never be tricked by you,
No, no, no,
I will never be tricked by you
