

Voxtrot, Long Haul

Somebody told me if you live this way,
then it's a long, long haul.
I wanna catch a love and make it stay,
oh it's a long, long haul.
When you know darkness you can love the day,
oh it's a long, long haul.
I've never seen it, i just talk this way,
oh it's a long, long haul.

And you lie to us both,
we are words, nothing holds.

I wanna catch a love and make it stay
oh it's a long, long haul.
I'll draw a little joy now of this place before I get too old.
I'll lead these troubled horses from this place within my troubled soul.

There is nothing,
so far.

If we are salt and earth and sun and stone then it's a long, long fall,
to fixing trouble in a broken home and if you won't, you won't call then you can walk beside me past my past.
Oh it's a long, long haul.

I wanna catch a love and make it last oh it's a long long, haul

And you lie to us both,
we are words nothing holds,
I wanna catch a love and make it stay,
oh its a long, long haul.
I'll draw a little joy out of this place before i get too old,
I'll lead these troubled horses from this place within my troubled soul.

There ain't nothing,
so far.

I wanna catch a love and make it stay
I wanna catch a love and make it stay
I wanna catch a love and make it stay
I wanna catch a love and make it stay
