

Vroom, Found Out About You

I shut the door, close the blinds
Here's your money, go and find
Someone else who's going to take you home again
I found out about you
You've been running around on me
I found out about you
You've been cheating on me
And I don't like your record
It echoes in these halls
If Hollywood is home
Then you can live there on your own

All the stars in Hollywood are coming out tonight
Cause out in the darkness we find the brightest light
Oohh, admit he's wrapped around your wrist one time
Cause leaving me dead makes you feel so alive

Aren't you so proud to be the woman on his arm?
With two black eyes he told me twice you're never going home
And he doesn't like your record
It echoes in these halls
If Hollywood is home
Then you can live there on your own

All the stars in Hollywood are coming out tonight
Cause out in the darkness we find the brightest light
Oohh, admit he's wrapped around your wrist one time
Cause (?something-something?) makes you feel so alive

You don't believe in love. (x2)
You don't believe, you dont believe in love. (x2)
You don't believe in love. (x2)
