

Vroom, I'm A Jerk

And how many times were we standing on the edge of a breakthrough?
And if there's nothing to hold on to maybe we don't have anything at all.
And I couldn't leave you, maybe I'm too afraid to be alone.
Cause I can't survive if I am on my own.

If we fall down when strains between us get to be too much
I still think we should keep in touch, if you'll forgive me.
I'm not afraid to admit I was wrong.

How many thoughtless mishaps would cause a relational collapse if we would learn to communicate things wouldn't be so delicate at all, but you don't believe that You think that it's all my fault.
but If you'd only trust me I would right the wrongs.

If we fall down when strains between us get to be too much
I still think we should keep in touch, if you'll forgive me.
I'm not afraid to admit I'm a jerk.
I know things have changed but can't we make this work?

Don't give up on me, I don't think that my heart would mend if you left me again, just give me one more chance, I be a better man cause I need you like oxygen.

and you would listen to my sad plea for forgiveness.
