

Vroom, Somebody Else

There's nobody else
But I swear I heard somebody
I'm all by myself
I must have been hearing the tv
Cause I need to know if you love me
I need to know if you love me
Everyone knows what they're doing to you
I'll be alright I just gotta be true
True to myself
But I swear I heard somebody else
