

Waikiki, Love Is

Love is lost
In a tale tossed.
Swept aside
By fear and pride.
Turned away
By yesterday.
But one thing's right,
They never hide.

So if you're feeling that it's just too much
Then take a breath and hold on tight,
Because love is light

If it's right.

The feeling soared
They wanted more
The time is right
They both felt inside
They didn't know
Just where to go
But one thing's right
They never hide

If you don't learn this time
I'm going to Teach you how I know you could
Be until you understood.
It takes time for love to settle down
And I know it will this time,
But not for now so close your eyes.
