

Walls Of Jericho, My Last Stand

Day breaks
the wondering begins night without regret couldn't face my suffering within, where I come from, where I've been I can't go down that path again

There's always a trail of broken hearts you will come bitter ends it's always the first of fall apart so I try to escape the past but I am learning know her best

( 2 x )
I will fight
risk my life
give my heart
to find my home

I am searching for my dreams to find the last I search for something real a sicious world for a soul as lost as mine but all the roads I've seen before they're cutter than they were last time I've got a heart with a will that's just as strong I am learning to survive In search of hope I push to carry on waiting for the journeys in a lifetime to begin

( 3 x )
I will fight
risk my life
to find my home

I will fight
