

Walters and Kazha, Release Your Heart

When I found you
You were an uncut stone
I looked inside
Wouldn't let you be alone
Now it's your time
To lower your guard for me
I'll make you shine
I know how to set you free
You've got a heart
That has to be made of gold
You're fine as art
As colors unfold
Pried.

This is my song
Sing it all night long
Release your heart
Let me hold you tight
Shine like a bright light
Free your heart
This song is for you
Showing love is true
Release your heart
Keep you safe from harm
Hold on to my arm
Release your heart
Life can never
Be one happy love song
But together
We can make this love strong
So trust your heart
And the feeling inside
It's time to bloom
Time to live and not to hide...
