

Walters and Kazha, Simplicity

Simplicity

Do you feel the beat of broken heart
When it's blood rush makes you fall apart
The pulse sounds more or less
Like crazyness

Trying to find a meaning of your smile
Thinking it's just the way to make me wild
The pulse sounds more or less
Like mess

(refrain)

Simplicity

Of you and me
It's just a stupid dream
You're overwrote

My history

In such a stupid way
Crish boom bang and I'm a blowing bomb
In your hands and knowing I'm so dumb
The pulse sounds more or less

Like crazyness

If I'm blind I'm looking for my mind
Finding out there is no place to hide
The pulse sounds more or less

Like mess
