

Walters and Kazha, The war is not over

I slowly walk into the night around
To see how dreams of people die
They gently fall from windows all around
And crash against the ground like glass
And Im so sorry Im so helpless in this angry world
If only I could change it for one day

Refrain

The war is not over everyone knows it
Its just a reason to make us believe
That someones the loser someones the winner
To make us believe thats the way it should be
But I dont wanna believe
In the story they all tell this fairytail has gone to far
I take a step and dare myself to be free
To see how beautiful we are that everyone can be a star
If only we would start believe in dreams
Believe in who we are...

Refrain

The war is not over...
