

Wanda Jackson, Heart You Could Have Had

Remember not so long ago my darling y said goodbye and left me ah so sad
Now the time has turn I see you cryin' you're cryin' for the heart you could have had
While you were gone I found another sweetheart
His kisses dried my tears and made me glad
I wear his ring our love will last forever he'll always own the heart you could have had (fiddle)
You let your jealous heart come in between us
You listen to the gossip from the start
To let you found I never cheated and now you say you've had a change of heart
While you were gone I found...
