

Wanda Jackson, I don't wanta go

Well I don't wanta go down the Lonely Street
Where broken hearts and the teardrops meet
Always been right here though I know I was wrong
So think it over baby don't leave me alone
No I don't wanta go down that Lonely Street
Where the blues walk in and the teardrops meet
Yes think it over baby don't break my heart
Give me one more chance we'll make a new start
No I don't wanta go down the Lonely Street
Where the blues walk in and the teardrops meet
You're my only love it's here I wanta stay so think it over baby don't send me away
Cause I don't wanta go no I don't wanta go no I don't wanta go
