

Wanda Jackson, One Teardrop At A Time

(One teardrop one teardrop)

I know that I've cried a lot today and my heart's gonna hurt the same old way

Cause I'm losin' the love I thought was mine

The heartache's brought one teardrop at a time

One teardrop at a time keeps telling me that won't be long until you'll be leaving me

When you go I'm gonna cry one more time

I'll take back my heart one teardrop at a time

No matter how many tears I cried that old familiar feeling stays inside

My heart for you won't leave just in time

I'll cry you from my heart one teardrop at a time

One teardrop at a time...
