

Wanda Jackson, Tuck Away My Lonesome Blues

(Yodel) I'm always blue feeling so blue I wish I had someone I knew
Just to help me tuck away my blues lonesome blues
So won't you be that someone to help me lose the blues
I really need someone to love me someone to kiss someone to scold me someone to miss
So help me tuck away my lonesome blues (yodel)
(dobro)
I really need someone to love me...
