

Wanderers, Can't Take You Anymore

(Parsons/Bators)

tell me everything you know but everything you know is wrong I got the vision - double vision I got the answers knew them all along I'm not that way now anymore you do not know me like before and now I can't take you anymore i'm not like i was before don't need you anymore don't have time for don't have room for can't take you anymore we used to laugh at stupid things we used to plan and we used to scheme but idealistic is not realistic an intellectual's opium dream i'm not that blind to it anymore i'm not that kind too like before
