Wanderers, No Dreams

(Goldstein/Simmonds) rooftop cameras monitoring the streets cancer causing chemicals in the food you eat zero population the family is banned frustration suicide, it's part of the plan genocide, kill the old, ain't useful anymore no more resources, we'll have to go to war corporation/government they're run by the same start thinking for yourself you'll get in the way no dreams - left for you no dreams - nothing to do no dreams - inside your, inside your bed got no dreams unemployment, no enjoyment is your legacy machines don't go on strike don't need you or me television valiums keep you of the streets so don't talk to strangers you might find the truth sirens singing in the night police riot - a show of might the rich stay in cause they can't afford to be safe ya got no money so you're in the race stop scheming - stop screaming - stop dreaming too