

Wang Chung, Even If You Dream

(Hues / Burnand)

I'm picking up paper

I'm doing the things that

I never thought I'd do again

I'm writing you letters

I'm getting the better

Of things I thought I'd lose again

Chorus:

You know I wish I was your lover

Even if you dream of him

I wish I was your brother

Baby when you dream of him

If you dream of him?

If you dream of him

I'm sitting in graveyards

I'm doing the things that

I never thought I'd do again

I got in your backyard

I got so nervous

I never thought I'd breathe again

Repeat Chorus

Baby I need you

Baby I'm in love with you

I wish I was your lover

Even if you dream of him

(Oh if you dream, even if you dream of him

Oh if you dream, even if you dream of him)

Repeat Chorus

Baby I need you

Baby I'm in love with you

I wish I was your lover even if you dream of him

Even if you dream of him
