Wang Chung, Wake Up, Stop Dreaming

Wake up, stop dreaming The sun is in the sky again There's a hole in the ocean And water's pouring through Oh, wake up stop dreaming And wipe the sleep from your eyes Are you frightened of heights Are you falling Chorus: Wake up stop dreaming There's more than just two steps to heaven I'm saying if you wanna get to heaven You'd better wake up Wake up, stop dreaming I'm talkin' 'bout dream and reality I'm talkin' 'bout love and brutality And I'm saying wake up Wake up Wake up stop dreaming Before the shutters start to groan Well it's something you said in the noon day sun But I don't recall, I don't recall Wake up stop dreaming Stop this seeming half reality Don't turn your face away Look at me As you lie sleeping Someone's keeping everything I knew Don't try to run away It's all new

Repeat Chorus
