

War Rocket Ajax, Gearhead

Gimme some time to clear my mind.
Oh the mess up in my head.
Try to get it tight but the dashboard light.
Turned on been blinking red.
When I get dead set you better better bet.
I'll just go like a train.
But I lost my track I've got to get back.
Or I'm gonna burn coal in vain.

G-E-A-R-H-E-A-D

Gimme that chance a song and a dance.
And teach an old dog a trick.
Last time I tried well I almost died.
From shooting up dope for kicks.
But I got me a heart and a brand new start.
And I walk in the narrow way.
Gonna follow that man with holes in his hands.
Until my dying day.
