

War Rocket Ajax, I Don't Wanna

Hello - hello it's me.
Did You say eternity?
I must admit sometimes I get a little scared.
You know that I believe in You.
I know that all You say is true.
But I get so terrified when my heart's laid bare.
That's why I'm saying that."

I don't wanna give my heart to You.
'Cause I'm afraid there'll be nothing left when You are through.
If I can I'm gonna stick to You like glue.
But I don't wanna give my heart to You.

Well hello - hello again.
I know it seems I'm not your friend.
But I hope You'll hear the words I never speak.
Can You find it in Your heart.
To say that we will never part and I hope You'll let it pass when I am weak.
(And when I say to You that.)
