

Warcloud, Purple Hearts

Life is a killer disease im holdin 9's break your brain up and roll it in a blunt to blow your mind dumb and blind can't see armegeddon we blaze roaches rob stage coaches, blast and throw explosives the dopest drunkin gun slinger, moonshine roam the ghost town and gundown foes at noontime holocaust call the shots get drunk and brawl alot fly plots let off 5 shots the cyclops in your face like eyedrops after you hit the weed we dump out seeds and smoke until our noses bleed in the wasteland these streets in rage is why we blaze westcoast god hearts cold like ice age im ancient orginal man mental patient armed with a jagged stone axe retaliation its futal we strapped with shanks and hand shooters and we'll smash through ya....
