

Warcloud, River Church

[Holocaust]

Surgeons remove the bullet from your head and bandage the wound
The ocean crashes in, you died in next afternoon
A tunnel stretches seventeen miles, the thickest cave
Long bus of agents and scientists search for Neolithic rage
I hunt androids which are no longer useful, the first planet it mercury
Nobody no crime, a plane stand vertically
You vanish while fighting in Word War I
I fire a large shell, vast distances, extreme weather
And the closing landscape shapes the lives of those who come under the Robot Tanks spell
A man invents a club for killers and convinces his men to join
By brutally murdering a drifter
An MC is eliminated by assassination
After a dark enforcer reveals some information
Youre after two 38s, the blast of Satan
The crowd must locate the super villain in a crowded mall
Into the lions den with you all
There was a statue that was built very tall
But at the time of an earthquake it falls
At night wooden castles from the wood ages disappear
People use deadly substances to alter consciousness
I die standing up laughing stabbed by five spears
A steam ship vanishes in the storm, just then your crown bled
Disaster after gun, the sunset down in tinder town was then found dead

[Chorus x2: Holocaust]

The rebellious nature of good, a ghost like the river
The house in the woods, the Robot Tank, the winner
Dragons thunder across the countryside in a ring
Abraham Lincoln in the flying spying machine

[Holocaust]

The Robot Tank, the Hulk in white African war paint
The wings of death savage battles like many Indian river bank
They fly an empty passenger plane down at me
No truths here, let response
Futuristic pledge potential for accidental nuclear weapon launch
Of course found on the railroad tracks is identified as four people, why?
Death returns to claim the lives of those who did not die
A bounty hunter sneaked aboard the ship to capture the river
Gold from defeating countries, the prisoners are shipped upon the water scene at winter
Immigrants record adventures and heartache to remember
A lethal virus is stolen from the biological research institute hither
People hide in a house from walking corpses revived from radiation fallout
A house dog becomes violent with his owner, from the dog house
Renegade works as a hypnotist and an accountant
They say cave dwellers known as ____ once roamed the mountain
A woman suspect that her daughters imaginary friend is ghost haunting their new home
Garden of dead, a ghost like the river, a dark red apple from Rome

[Chorus x2]

[Holocaust]

Escaped convicts force a way into your home, race for the South Pole
A wolf eats a cannibal, crash above your head like flights coal
Sent out on a mission to uncover a stash of ancient riches
The executioners daughter joins an outlaw who escaped death on Christmas
Precognitive vision, MCs died from the hells of physics
The Devil you know must escape from resembling Hell prison
Millions of people seemingly vanish from your eyelid
An actress ageless beauty pauses a mystery writer, a gun tyrant
I fight in medieval England with the chainsaw spilling your life
A man sees himself on television killing his wife

An ancient magician drafts Bruce Banner as an assistant
More than two thousand civil war battles take place west of a village
Twenty people hang or are tortured to death for the craft of witches
A Chinese peasant finds a coin in a land of riches
A man walks through fire, falling cant fly
You desire harm, your work is sniffing
Leonardo da Vinci develops an early firearm
