

Warhead, Blindly

(music: eilen)

(lyrics: eilen)

(arranged by WARHEAD)

a tear drops down from your face the wrong thing at the right place your eyes a touch of nothing your captured the bloody truth is, you're stoned again feel the needle in your veins buy the stuff and be dead a little higher you get eat pills instead eating bread emotions you share with pain you're insane

as long as you are satisfied you're standing on the good side a hell's what you're living in blindly

close the door behind your eyes await the big surprise the fire is burning cold your life's sold the stab hurts you, never care a dead body, a living nightmare it gets you before you can get it the beginning of the end the opinion you had to defend the walk into the fire your desire

never stop, go on and on nothing's right but you are wrong you have gone one step too far!
