Warhead, Six Billion Reasons To Hate way up, way down and no way to return mankind that never learned just talk 'bout love and respect but just lie in fact I tell you that's the way you act the deep dungeons in the heads are filled with distrust, hate and pain a friendly smile to keep the common face it's the same old ugly game

SIX BILLION HUMANS CREAPING DOWN ON EARTH HIDING FROM WHAT THEY'LL DESERVE LIVING ONLY TO ENJOY NOT FOR LIFE, JUST TO DESTROY

go down, go down, go down without remorse for your own end you're the cause go on, go on until it's to late follow your God and stand straight you hurt each other with your hatred killer and victim through and through you think you're the only exception and for this I hate you!

feed the dungeons in your head preach damnation and stand straight feed the dungeons in your head we know you just preach to hate feed the dungeons, feed the dungeons feed the dungeons in your head
