

Warhead, Warhead

(music: breitenbach)
(lyrics: breitenbach)
(arranged by breitenbach)

what do you think while you are running here between the bushes in the rain? what do you feel
inside your fucking head?
cause now your "real me" goes insane

i will take your soul
for my own pleasure
many of you warheads went that way before

be careful what you say it takes your breath away it takes your life

just another war

once again
you hear the hammering on the outside the helicopters in the sky you try to run
but you can't control your legs you realize it's time to die

i will take your soul...

be careful what you say...

did you ever think that your government tells you the truth about your war?
you crossed the boarderline, sawed the seeds of death but in the end i beg for more

i will take your soul...

be careful what you say...