

Warlock, Hellbound

Aah!

You're in a fever for the next bloody deed
Your search is not long, your search for all what you need
Your body wild - what's going on in your head?
Oh we all know that you're a man so bad

Like what it is

All that you missed, you missed

When you take it in your hand

It means it is... its end

All what you find and when it's even a child

Believe that you're a friend, and not a guy

You can't be quiet till you make it sad

That's what you need before you can't, going mad

Don't care what it is

All what you missed, you missed

When you take it in your hand

It means it is its end

Yeah... yeah...

You're a hateful guy

You're hateful

Hateful when you arrive

All of us, we're content

Until you make us cry

You're in a fever for the next bloody deed

Your search is not long, your search for all what you need

Your body wild - what's going on in your head?

Oh we all know that you're a man so bad

Don't care what it is

All that you missed, you missed

When you take it in your hand

It means it is its end

You're a hateful guy

You're hateful

Hateful when you arrive

All of us, we're content

Until you make us cry

Yeah... yeah...

You're a hateful guy

You're hateful

Hateful when you arrive

All of us, we're content

Until you make us cry
