

Warlock, Shout It Out

Out of Control
Drums in the night
Give me a sign
I hear the sound of war
That is echoing through the streets
Yeah, I can feel
Cold metal steel
The rhythm of death
Is burning in my mind
All the time
You know it feels all right
Running through the night
To my master
With thoughts of destruction
In my brains
Out of control
I can hear the warlord call
"Give me your soul"
The bells of fire ringing out so loud
"Back to attack!"
Drums of the night
Make me wild
The hounds of hell are getting closer
With their gleaming eyes
Oh, the rhythm of death
Is burning in my mind
You know it feels all right
Running to my master
With thoughts of destruction
In my brains
Out of control
I can hear the warlord call
"Give me your soul"
The bells of fire ringing out so loud
"Back to attack!"
Out of control
I can hear the warlord call
"Give me your soul"
Out of control
Out of control
