

Warner Mack, Biggest Part

The biggest part of me goes with you where you go
The biggest part of me wants you more than you know
There can never be much feeling for somebody new
When the biggest part of me still belongs to you

To look at me you think I'm doing fine letting no one know you're still on my mind
I joke and laugh but darling don't be fool
Cause the biggest part of me still belongs to you (steel)
Oh the biggest part of me...
