

Warner Mack, Million Thoughts From My Mind

I just don't understand the way you're thinking
The things you say to me are so unkind
Why do you live in fear of your heart breaking
When hurtin' you a million thoughts from my mind
Don't judge my love by ones you'd known before me
Please darling leave their memories behind
Just give my love a chance to show what it can be
Why hurtin' you a million thoughts from ym mind
(steel)
Don't judge my luck...
Yes hurtin' you a million thoughts from ym mind
