

Warner Mack, Yes There's A Reason

(There must be a reason I keep on wanting you)
Yes there's a reason why I can't forget your kiss
There must be a reason why your love I can't resist
Could it be that I love you though I know it's wrong to do
Yes there's a reason I keep on wanting you
I hang my head in sorrow each time I hear your name
Cause deep inside I know sweetheart you'll cause me grief and shame
Afraid to say that I love you cause I know it could be true
Yes there's a reason I keep on wanting you
(guitar)
I hang my head in sorrow...
