

Warpaint, Whiteout

You wouldn't know it but you're really in your prime
Is there a question not answered in your mind?
Before you know the answer, you're running out of time

There is an anchor, I'll put it in my heart
You gotta do what's right for you, and do it from the start
Even when they wonder, they wonder where you are, are
You know what I want
To know the secrets in your heart
And now I keep it low
There's just some things I don't need to know

What a night
Don't go tonight

You oughta know it, but it happens all the time
Is there a question?
You treat it like a crime
And in the walls you weaken and out the walls you mind

Why is it not all that it seems?
You lock it up so easily
I wanna believe all that you say to me

You know what I want
To rip it open and pull it out
And we'll take it low
There's just some things I don't need to know

Don't go tonight
Don't go tonight

Whiteout
You want it, you want it out
Whiteout
You want it, you want it all out
Whiteout
You want it, you wanted it out
Whiteout
Tonight
Don't go tonight

You're talking sadly though I'm transparent for you
You like a madness, always I skip
If you're feeling, touch you
I'm focused on the run
I'm focused on the run
But I feel like you wanted me to
