

Warren Barfield, You Inspire Me

Hear the roar of the ocean
Feel the waves at my feet
I'm looking over my shoulder
At the mountain peaks
There's a bird that is whistling
What a wonderful world
And I am so amazed
I have to sing Your praise

CHORUS:
Cause You
You inspire me, yeah
I see Your reflection in everything (everything)
You're moving me
Like a melody whoa
You inspire me
Yeah

Well the driving rain
Sets the beat
The wind is howling a harmony
The clouds roll away
The sun shines a chorus
Your creation sings the words
To songs I've never heard

BRIDGE:
I want to live a life with passion
That always points to You
Share a love that is wreckless and untamed
Cause You've sketched the world in wonder
And You draw it out of me
The Heavens declare Your glory
And I want to do the same yeah, yeah
Oh Lord, help me do the same
