

Warren Brothers, Just Another Sad Song

I knew I shouldn't love her
We were only seventeen But I've always been a sucker for long blonde hair and eyes so green
But I had to leave her Leave her in my past
It wasn't my first broken heart
I know it's probably not my last

CHORUS:

It's just another heartache and I don't even wonder why It's just another woman who's tellin' me goodbye
It's just another sad song
That I'll sing again tonight

Will I hit the big time with records that sell gold? or will I sit on a stool at the Rock Away Grill playin' Neil Young 'til I'm old?
All I ever wanted was to be happy and to be free But sometimes it takes so much just to bring those things to me

CHORUS:

It's just another mountain that I'm gonna have to climb It's just another secret that I'm gonna have to find It's just another sad song

Do do do do do do
Do do do do do do do do
Do do do do do do sing it to me baby
Just another sad song

There's no use in complaining but I do it anyway I don't mind workin' hard but it's sure hard working every day

CHORUS:

It's just another story that I'm gonna have to write It's just another long day I'll ride on through until the night
It's just another sad song
Sing it to me baby
