

Warren Zanes, Hey Girl

if there are demons at your door you shouldn't feed them anymore you might wind up in their world if there's a darkness in the air you'd better shut the windows there but if a memory's tangled up you'd better let that thing unfurl hey girl have you ever drawn a line and he walked right through it? have you ever shown your face and the sun shined through? have you ever thought you're kinda just wasting words?

I've wasted mine I kinda combed the world hey girl I've known you since you were a pup and you have somehow walked the world and behind you left so much so when the demons are at your door can you remember all the words? 'cause you're simply nothing more than the reason for this world
