

Warrior Soul, Interzone

(This Is A Joy Division Song From The LP 'Unknown Pleasures')

I walked through city limits someone took me in to do it attracted by some force within it had to close my eyes to get close to it around the corner where prophet lay saw the place where shed a room to stay a wire fence where children play saw the bed where the body lay and I was looking for a frinde of mine and I had no time to waste yaeh, I was looking for some friends of mine the car screeched in the sand and dust heard a noise - just a car outside metallic blue turned red with rust pulled in close by the buildings side in a group of forgotten youth had to think, collect my senses now turned on to a knife edge view find some place where my frinds dont go and I was looking for a friend of mine down the streets, the houses looked the same getting drunker now, faces look the same I walked round and round, no stomach, torn apart nail me to atrain, had to think again trying to find a clue, trying to find a way to get out trying to move away, had to move away and keep four, twelve windows, ten in a row behind a wall I looked downlow the lights shine like a neon show inserted deep felt a warmer glow no place to stop, no place to go no to time to lose, had to keep on going I guess they died some time ago I guess they died some time ago and I was looking for a friend of mine
