

Warzone, Murdertown

Think you have it all planned out Troubles coming in on you
Hard times, nowhere
to run
The assassinator marked you for death
Murdertown U.S.A
Living a lie everyday
The assassinator marked you for death
The mighty one speaks
Time for justice
I've seen the light
from above
I've felt death from down below
Murder and hate is the theme for today
Now it's fine for all of you to play
It's a game of the mind
And you're running out of time
No winners
You all lose
Murdertown U.S.A
