

Warzone, The Snake And The Lion

In the jungle mist
Going back many years
In a lost land
The beast stalked its prey
And where are your dreams now?
Are your souls locked away?
In the garden so many people trying to be free
Your fate sealed in destiny
All our lives are filled with change
But the snake, master of deception
Is within range Trapped down in a deep sleep
Out of sight, out of mind
The reaper doesn't weep
The snake has you in this world Trapped your heart on the earth
But there's more to this than meets the eye It's in the word-hard truth
The sword is ready That's no lie Revelation coming around the bend Lucifer your evil's at its end
Dragging down the poor and weak Rich man's soul, it can't sleep Time to deal with your fate
All your greed, all your hate Everybody's looking at the sky
They don't believe without seeing with their eyes
