

Warzone, Throw Me A Line

I've been trying to break the chains
Keep the edge on me
I'm winning the fight
But I know inside
Got to do what's right
Stay drug-free
There might be time
When I need your help
So if you see the sign
Throw me a line
Doesn't do no good to preach
Put yourself on a pedestal
So you're out of reach
Got to make a choice inside your heart
A way of life
That's how you start
Too many elites, too many crews
What's the purpose for what you do
Have you hit rock
bottom?
Do you know the deal?
If you take the pledge
Do it for real
